From the Pastor: Bearing wrongs patiently—a spiritual work of mercy:

Regardless of how well we try to live our lives, we are going to encounter others who will hurt us by their actions. It is commonly said that patience is a virtue. Patience prevents us from reacting out of anger. We cannot control every situation and patience enables us to bear every situation. The only way to grow in patience is to keep our glance on Jesus who bore the hatred of His own fellow citizens, who was betrayed by a friend and, condemned as an evildoer.
