This weekend we welcome the newest member into our Parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism

Sophie Sue Gardner, daughter of Dillon and Molly (Seymore) Gardner. Congratulations to the new family!

From the Pastor: November 11 is the 98th anniversary of the end of the First World War. At the time it was known as the war to end all wars. November 11 became known as Armistice Day and later became known as Veterans Day in the United States. Before that, November 11 was known as the Feast of St. Martin of Tours or Martinmas.

Martin was born in the year 316 in an area known as Pannonia which included parts of present day Austria and Hungary as well as other countries. When he was 15, he entered the Roman army and was baptized at age 18. Before he was baptized, he met a poor, naked beggar at the gates of Amiens who asked alms in Christ's Name. Martin had nothing with him except his weapons and soldier's mantle; but he took his sword, cut the latter in two, and gave half to the poor man. During the following night Christ appeared to him clothed with half a mantle and said, "Martin, the catechumen, has clothed Me with this mantle!" Martin left the service after his baptism and was ordained to the priesthood. Later, he was named Bishop of Tours. He also possessed the gift of discerning spirits. Once the devil appeared to him radiant and clothed in royal apparel, and spoke as if he were Christ. Martin, recognizing the deceit, replied, "The Lord Jesus Christ never prophesied that He would come in purple robes and royal crown." The apparition immediately vanished. Three dead persons he raised to life. While celebrating holy Mass a luminous sphere appeared over his head.!" (See Pius Parsch's The Church's Year of Grace)

St Martin of Tours is the patron saint of soldiers.
