From the Pastor: This weekend is Labor Day weekend—the unofficial end of summer. President Grover Cleveland signed legislation in 1894 to establish the first Monday in September as Labor Day.

In 1955, Pope Pius XII designated St. Joseph as the patron of the worker in order to remind us that work is a means of personal sanctification that is, a way for us to grow closer to God by how we apply ourselves--always looking to St. Joseph and following his example of providing for the Holy Family. Best wishes for an enjoyable holiday weekend.

A note from Agnes "Dusty" Pohlman: "A heartfelt thank you to all who sent me well wishes on my birthday! All of the cards really made my birthday a special one. God bless you all!"
