

Parish Council Meeting

June 16, 2016

Fr. Howard opened the meeting at 7:00pm with a prayer.

Members in attendance: Michael Seymore, Mark Pevarnik, Wendy McCall, Adam Wurtz, Bridget Wurtz, and Eugene Livelsberger.

Members absent: Charlotte Glessner, Scott Mull

Parishioners in attendance: Richard King

No school report since Crystal Noel has stepped down. July 1st Diane Giampietro will start as principal. She will be meeting with Mrs. Noel and working out a transition.

There was discussion about the purchase of a dishwasher for the school. Mike Seymore and Eugene Livelsberger will work with Fr. Howard to go over the details of the purchase.

The parish website is now up and running. A big thank you to Mike Seymore and Mark Pevarnik! We appreciate all of their hard work, time and service updating the website. If there are any comments or feedback about the website, please let Fr. Howard or the Parish Council know.

Mark Pevarnik mentioned the possibility of a pre-order for the Christmas ornaments. Fr. Howard and the Parish Council said this was a good idea. Fr. Howard will work with Mark to go over the purchase amount.

Fr. Howard reported that the rosaries were still selling well and he ordered more.

Fr. Howard mentioned that the location was found where the birds were getting into the church. Screens were put up to secure the area.

Eugene Livelsberger shared that there was a need for volunteers for the Parish Picnic. Fr. Howard will put announcements in the bulletin and make announcements after Mass, if needed.

The cemetery has a new gravedigger, from New Oxford, since the other grave digger has passed away.

Mike Seymore reported that the youth meetings, in the Adams Deanery, have been going well. Scott Anthony, from York, has been spear heading the effort and helping the parishes to get started.

The convent maintenance is completed. The rectory has ongoing maintenance, because of weather cancellations and rescheduling.

Outgoing members Scott Mull and Adam Wurtz were thanked for their service.

New members Don and Fran Livelsberger, Loretta Livelsberger and Keith Rider were welcomed.

Election of officers was held and Mike Seymore will stay the president. Eugene Livelsberger will stay the vice president and Wendy McCall will continue on as secretary.

Fr. Howard closed the meeting with a prayer at 7:45pm.
