Summer Bible Study:
"Where are you, God?!?"

Why is it that sometimes God seems to be absent-or at least silent-when everything is going wrong? Let's talk. Come and ponder with us where God might be in the midst of life's misfortunes. Then, let's figure out what we can do differently. On Monday evening July 29, we will consider how God often seems absent in the midst of tragedy-whether it is a big tragedy or a not so big tragedy. Where is God? The Bible study begins at 6:30pm in the gym. Bring along your Bible. Our presenter is Fr. Schlaline. All are welcome even if you were not able to attend the July 1st or the 15th sessions.

The Jesuits

The feast of Saint Ignatius of Loyola is July 31. In honor of this founder of the Society of Jesus (aka Jesuits), here is a reflection from John Timon Reilly of his experience of the Jesuits he knew:
"The Jesuits were great missionaries, teachers and statesmen, and worked for great ends. The Society of Jesus was founded as an army to battle against the enemies of religion: to fight the battles of the Church against infidelity, and stand between the powers of the world, His Church and His poor. The prayer of its saintly founder, Saint Ignatius Loyola, was for continual persecution of its members, so that they might become grim warriors used to the struggles that light is bound to meet with darkness as long as time shall exist. Like the soldier, the Jesuits are trained to religious austerities from youth to the grave, and they are practiced in every mode of Christian warfare. They are as learned a body of men as the world will ever see. Their school of theology is the grandest in the history of the church."
