Sister Marie Isaac, OP

VOCATION MINISTRY

Vocations Awareness

Consecrated life refers to people who have been consecrated to God in a special way taking vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. We have a native daughter of the parish who has entered consecrated life: Sister Marie Isaac Staub, OP. She entered the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia Congregation in 2004. She was born and raised in Hanover, PA and attended Sacred Heart School and Delone Catholic High School. Before her senior year in high school, she moved to Kentucky with her family where she finished high school and college. At the end of college, she had a deeper conversion to the faith and desired to serve in the Church. After learning more about religious life and meeting the Nashville Dominicans, she entered that community and professed her final vows in 2011. Since then, Sister Marie Isaac has served as a teacher in South Carolina and as a school principal in Illinois. She is currently the principal of a Catholic grade school in Denver, CO. She is forever grateful for the formation she received from her family and from the teachers and religious sisters serving at Sacred Heart School.

World Day for Consecrated Life

"When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord." (Luke 2:22) God invites us to dedicate ourselves fully to His will. Could He be asking you to present your life to Him in a special way? Trust in God's plan for you. Talk to your priest, reach out to Father Joshua Weaver, Diocesan Vocation Director, at (717) 657-4804, or email him at frjweaver@hbgdiocese.org .
