What does that stand for?

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam- this is a Latin phrase that means, "For the Greater Glory of God." It was also a motto for the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) who founded this parish. The older photos of the church showed a decorative panel at the top of the Sacred Heart Painting with this acronym on it. Canning Liturgical Arts replicated it since we do not know the location of the original one. May all of our actions redound Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam unto the Greater Glory of God!

Our goal for the year 2025 is $70,262. Thank you so much for your support and kind generosity. Use the QR code for your donation or send by check. Thank you to all who have contributed to the Diocesan Annual Campaign this year. As of April 11, we now have raised $46,700 toward our goal. We still need to raise another $23,562 to reach our goal. Please consider making an additional donation.

“Becoming Catholic is the greatest thing that has happened to me. I once felt like there was a void in my heart and I can now say that, thanks to God, that void has been filled. I am excited for the future as this is just the beginning. This journey has been such a blessing!”

Samuel Johnson

I am 27 years old, being the youngest sibling in my family. I started my journey to joining the church in late 2022 when I began discussing the true nature of the Christian faith with my friends. After attending mass at a few different churches and researching Catholicism to a greater extent, I felt called to come home. Many thanks to Boyd Rogish and Father Dwight Schlaline, who were instrumental in my development of the faith."

Austin Darr

I am becoming Catholic because I want to be a part of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic faith - to enter into the ark of salvation, the body of Christ. I desire to grow in my faith, nourished by the most precious Body and Blood of Christ, and to be a light in the world. In the words of my Confirmation saint, Ignatius of Antioch, "I have no taste for corruptible food nor for the pleasures of this life. I desire the bread of God, which is the flesh of Jesus Christ, who was of the seed of David; and for drink I desire his blood, which is love incorruptible...."

Thinking about becoming Catholic?

There are two more candidates who will be received into the church in June of this year. Additionally, we have a few people in formation to be received into the church at Easter of 2026. Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Contact Kelly and Don Jenkins at ConewagoRCIA@gmail.com.
