Diocesan Annual Campaign

Thank you to all who have contributed to the Diocesan Annual Campaign so far this year. As of August 4, we now have raised $62,825 toward our goal of $70,262. We only need to raise another $7,437. We are almost there! Use this QR code for your donation or send by check.

Remember that any funds raised above our goal are returned to the parish and not assessed for the next campaign. That means a donation to the DAC is more than just the amount you send. May God reward your fidelity and helpfulness.

Vocation Spotlight

Sister Theresa Marie Smith, a daughter of our parish, made her first profession on August 12, 1950. Last Saturday, August 2, 2025, at Saint Anne's in Columbia she celebrated 75 years as a member of the Adorers of the Precious Blood Community.

Sister Theresa Marie was born in Hanover, PA, to Maurice and Evelyn Smith. She earned a bachelor's degree in history from Mount Mercy College, (now Carlow University), in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1962. She also did graduate work in history at Catholic University in Washington, DC. Sister Theresa Marie spent 13 years as an elementary teacher in several states: St. Mary School in Steelton and Sacred Heart in McKeesport, Pennsylvania; Immaculate Conception in East Chicago, Illinois; St. Francis in Lumberton and Christ the King in Kinston, North Carolina. She taught high school for four years at St. Joseph Academy in Columbia, PA, while also serving as the dorm moderator and formation director for novices and postulants, and provincial supervisor. A final ministry, in pastoral and liturgical services, grew from her participation in the Pastoral Leadership Institute in San Antonio, Texas, where she attended workshops in spirituality, formation, administration, theology and catechetics. At San Juan Bautista in Lancaster, PA, she served six years as a pastoral assistant, and another 15 years as the Director of Religious Education in the Hispanic community. Sister Theresa Marie now resides at Saint Anne's Retirement Community on Columbia, PA.
