A Reflection for Thanksgiving Day

"The Church has reason to rejoice, that Catholics are awakening to the justice and importance of reclaiming and preserving the early history and records of the religion of their fathers. Want, intolerance and persecution drove them from their native land. They came into a strange and unsettled country, --cast adrift in the Indian wilds of America, without homes, without a church or a government, and without anything necessary to life and happiness.

This generation, with all the grandeur and perfection of its civilization, can never fully understand nor in the least appreciate the sufferings and struggles of those who cleared our fields and built our homes. The enjoyments and comforts we now possess, are ours only by inheritance as the fruits of their labors."

-John Timon Reily

The Rites of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

In the early church, there were various ceremonies that prepared interested persons for Baptism at the Easter Vigil. In the Second Vatican Council, the Catholic Church recovered the importance of these ceremonies. At 9:00am this Thursday, during the Thanksgiving Day Mass, we will celebrate one of these ceremonies for our catechumen. It is called the "Presentation of the Creed"—a ceremony in which catechumens are formally presented with the ancient faith of the Church as enunciated in the Creed.
